Contacto

Una Revista para el Latino de Hoy

*Serving the Hispanic Community
Since 1994*

Media Kit

Established on July 1, 1994 as a monthly publication aimed at the Hispanic community living in Greater Los Angeles, Contacto Magazine is probably the only bilingual media outlet of its type in Southern California.

Contacto has published a number of special editions about Hispanic contributions to the United States with news features on community affairs, immigration, music, films, festivals, books, health, politics, PCs, Internet, real estate, Latin food and more.

Articles by staff and contributing writers have been quoted or reprinted by well known publications based in the United States, Latin America and Spain. Editors and writers have been interviewed by Los Angeles Times, La Opinión, Univisión, Telemundo, CNN, The Miami Herald and other news media.

Contacto Magazine has also become an ideal media outlet to reach a Hispanic who loves to reading a high-quality journalism similar to the one he/she used to read before becoming an immigrant in the United States....

On the Internet

ContactoMagazine.com was launched on December 17, 1998. Since then it has become a powerful tool helping our advertisers gain a wider exposure.

According to .comScore Media Matrix, an Internet research firm, there were 16 million U.S. Hispanics online in 2006, a cyberpopulation that outpaces those of Mexico, Spain, Argentina and Colombia.

Advertisers can buy online ad space by publishing a banner ad hyperlinked to their own websites. When you buy a BW 1/2 page or a bigger size for three consecutive issues or longer in our print edition, you gain free online advertising in ContactoMagazine.com's Directorio Comercial Clasificado.

If your company does not have a website yet, we will design a promotional microsite within ContactoMagazine.com for your company for an affordable fee, so your company can take advantage of this cross-promotion opportunity.
